Hanover, April 20. N. S. His Electoral Highneſs intends to remove very ſoon to Vinehauſen near Zell, in order to take the diverſion of Hunting. The Elector and the Electreſs Dowager, have ſent two Gentlemen to the Court of Wolfenbuttel with Compliments of Condoleance upon the Death of the late Duke. Eight and twenty Men have been diſbanded out of every Company in the Regiment of Guards, and the reſt of the Troops of his Electoral Highneſs are to be reduc'd in proportion. They write from Brunſwick, that the Miniſters of Denmark, Hanover and Holſtein, have held ſeveral Conferences with the Plenipotentiaries of his Imperial Majeſty, in relation to ſome Propoſals that are to be made to the Aſſembly, when the Miniſters of the other Princes are arrived. We have receiv'd advice from Holſtein, that the Fortifications of Tonningen have been demoliſh'd by the King of Denmark's Order, and only the Wall towards the Eyder is preſerv'd, for the Security of the Town from the Inundations of that River.

Hamburgh, April 20. N. S. Baron Frizendoff, Envoy of Sweden at the Court of Berlin, came hither ſome Days ago, in order to conſult with Count Welling upon the Affairs of the King his Maſter. General Spar, who has been in the Service of the moſt Chriſtian King, is arrived here from Paris. His Pruſſian Majeſty has aſſembled his Troops at Havelberg, Magdebourg, and Neven, where he intends to review them, and from thence to ſet out for Pomerania. The Miniſters of Gottorp have offer'd to give that Prince entire Poſſeſſion of Stetin, and to withdraw their Troops from thence, in caſe he will oblige the King of Denmark to evacuate Holſtein; and as that Place is of great Importance to his Majeſty, it is thought he will hearken to their Propoſal. Count Flemming continues ſtill at Berlin, in order to receive the Sum of Money the King of Pruſſia has promiſed his Maſter for the Expences of the Siege of Stetin. He is to return from thence to Leipſic, without going to the Congreſs at Brunſwick. It is reported, that a defenſive Alliance will be made very ſoon between Sweden, Pruſſia, and the Landgrave of Heſſe Caſſel; to which purpoſe it is ſaid Monſieur Mardefeld is to go to Stockholm in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary of his Pruſſian Majeſty. The Daniſh Fleet, conſiſting of Forty Men of War, will be ready to put to Sea about the beginning of next Month. The Senate of Sweden has order'd a Liſt to be made of all Perſons capable of bearing Arms, and ſeveral Bodies are to be form'd out of them, in order to oppoſe their Enemies that threaten to invade the Kingdom on all ſides. They are likewiſe fitting out three Squadrons under the Command of the Admirals Wattrang, Lille, and Lowenhaupt. That which is to be employ'd againſt the Muſcovites, is to conſiſt of Sixteen large Men of War and Twenty Galleys, and will be ready to ſet ſail very ſoon, by which means it is believ'd they may be able to hinder the Daniſh and Muſcovite Fleets from joining. The Czar has publiſh'd a Manifeſto in Scania, in which he declares, That his deſign of entring into Sweden, is not to deſtroy the Country, but only to procure a reaſonable Peace; exhorting the Inhabitants not to abandon their Dwellings, ſince they ſhould be paid ready Money for the Subſiſtance of his Troops, and he would deliver them from the Yoke they now labour under, by concluding a Treaty of Peace with the States, tho' the King ſhould not conſent to it. Letters from Conſtantinople bring an Account, that the Grand Signior had refuſed to admit the Poliſh Ambaſſador to an Audience, and to ratify the Peace with the Republick, till he was put into Poſſeſſion of the Province of Ukrain.

Paris, April 21. N. S. On the 11th the King went to Marli, where it is ſaid he will continue till the 18th of next Month. On the 15th, the Peace between the Emperor and his Majeſty was Proclaimed here with the uſual Ceremonies, and to Morrow there is to be a Firework before the Town-houſe upon that Occaſion. The Troops of the Houſhold have been review'd four Days ſucceſſively before their Commanders; and on the 23d, there is to be a general Review in the Preſence of his Majeſty; after which it is ſaid, thoſe Troops will be reduced to Ten thouſand Men. Cardinal del Guidice and Count Brancas are arrived here from Madrid.
